January

Skálholt cathedral (Church of Iceland) became the seat of Bishop Ísleifur in 1056, marking the beginning of institutionalised Christianity in Iceland. The modern cathedral was built from 1956 to 1963.

February

Cairo Street Chapel, Warrington, was founded in 1662, the current building dates from 1745. It has a distinguished place in the social, educational and cultural history of the town. The current minister is Rev Bob Janis-Dillon, inducted in March 2016.

March

The Nazareth Unitarian Chapel is located at Padliham in Burnley. The congregation was founded in 1806 by two local weavers, who were followers of Joseph Cooke, a Methodist Unitarian. The current building was opened in 1874.

Minister: Rev. Jim Corrigan

www.padliham-unitarians.org.uk

April

Fo Guang Shan (Buddha's Light Mountain) is a Chinese Buddhist movement located in Kaohsiung, Taiwan. The order was founded by Hsing Yun and celebrates its 50th anniversary in 2017.

www.fgs.org.tw/en

May

The Nightingale Centre in Great Hucklow, Derbyshire was opened in 1931 as a convalescent home for Unitarian and Free Christian servicemen. Set in an area of ancient woodland, it now serves as a conference centre for educational, faith and voluntary groups. Over three months of each year is set aside to provide children in need with a holiday arranged by SACH.

The church can be dated back to 1565 and today has over 200 Hungarian-speaking congregations in Transylvania, Romania, as well as additional congregations in Hungary. The current bishop based in Kolozsvár/Cluj is Rev Bálint Benczédi Ferenc.

July

“The only condition is that the children selected would not otherwise have a holiday”

Send a Child to Hucklow Fund (SACH) was started in 1961 by Rev Peter Godfrey and Rev Glyn Pruce, to provide holidays for disadvantaged children at the Nightingale Centre, Great Hucklow in the Peak District National Park.

The children are selected from agencies such as the Family Service Units, Women's Refuges, Social Service Departments, etc., with no regard to religious considerations.

In 2017 children from across the UK will enjoy a much needed holiday, totally funded and organised by SACH. The charity is run on an entirely voluntary basis and the Hon Secretary is Ernest Baker.

All proceeds from the sale of additional copies of this calendar will go to the fund.

Registered charity number: 271585
